

Gate Valve

Features

- Wedge: furnished with solid/flexible design at specific request of the user/client.
- Special flange facings can be given to suit specific applications (e.g. large or small male or female face-ring joint face etc.)
- The valve can be supplied with matching electrically operated actuator for remote/automated control and operation.
- By-pass arrangement/position indicator/extension stem with or without floor stand can be provided on request.
- Pressure seal design bonnet can be given at specific request of the user/client.
- The design and technical data furnished here are subject to change due to continuous product development.